Thanks Julia- as a reminder - I'm taking the 8 to 10 pm shift tonight so you don't have to do a four hour shift this evening.

I have social stuff going on every day after work. I won't be able to help out until next Tuesday. You guys can de-loop me going forward on any sked discussions.

Is anyone in the office til 6 pm who could take the 5-6 pm shift tonight?

I can pick it up from there from home. And I can extend to any of the other times as needed for tonight (I put my name in parens for when I am available)

If, at this point, you *could* be available for any of these, please add your name in parens. We'll make it one person per shift, as always, and I can fill in wherever.

TY!

Hi,

Looks like we'll need to be ready to send this evening and possibly tomorrow.

I added myself but am flexible for other times.

Seems like we know by about midnight if something is on the way or not.

Thanks!
